Uniform Residential Loan Application

This application is designed to be completed by the applicant(s) with the Lender's assistance. Applicants should complete this form as "Borrower" or "Co-Borrower", as applicable. Co-Borrower information must also be provided (and the appropriate box checked) when the income or assets of a person other than the "Borrower" (including the Borrower's spouse) will be used as a basis for loan qualification or the income or assets of the Borrower's spouse or other person who has community property rights pursuant to state law will not be used as a basis for loan qualification, but his or her liabilities must be considered because the spouse or other person has community property rights pursuant to applicable law and Borrower resides in a community property state, the security property is located in a community property state, or the Borrower is relying on other property located in a community property state as a basis for repayment of the loan.

If this is an application for joint credit, Borrower and Co-Borrower each agree that we intend to apply for joint credit (sign below):

THE HOUSING FINANCIAL DISCRIMINATION ACT OF 1977

FAIR LENDING NOTICE

Date: _____ Company: California Department of Veteran Affairs
 Application No: _____ 1227 O Street
 Property Address: _____ Sacramento, CA 95814

It is illegal to discriminate in the provisions of or in the availability of financial assistance because of the consideration of:

1. Trends, characteristics or conditions in the neighborhood or geographic area surrounding a housing accommodation, unless the financial institution can demonstrate in the particular case that such consideration is required to avoid an unsafe and unsound business practice or
2. Race, color, religion, sex, marital status, domestic partnership, national origin or ancestry.

It is illegal to consider the racial, ethnic, religious or national origin composition of a neighborhood or geographic area surrounding a housing accommodation or whether or not such a composition is undergoing change, or is expected to undergo change, in appraising a housing accommodation or in determining whether or not, or under what terms and conditions, to provide financial assistance.

These provisions govern financial assistance for the purpose of the purchase, construction, rehabilitation or refinancing of a one-to-four unit family residence occupied by the owner and for the purpose of the home improvement of any one-to-four unit family residence.

If you have any questions about your rights, or if you wish to file a complaint, contact the manager of this financial institution or

Enter the tax classification (C=C corporation, S=S corporation, P=partnership) ▶ _____ <input type="checkbox"/> Other (see instructions) ▶ _____	Exemptions (see instructions): Exempt payee code (if any) _____ Exemption from FATCA reporting code (if any) _____
	Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.)	Requester's name and address (optional)
	City, state, and ZIP code
List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Social security number

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Employer identification number

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below), and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

Agreement to Self-Report Changes in Financial Status

I understand that it is my responsibility to inform Homes4Families of any adverse changes in my employment or financial situation or marital status between opening of escrow and closing of escrow. I also understand that I am purchasing an Affordable Home under conditions that include the CalVet REN model of homeownership and therefore am responsible to make every effort to ensure that my credit remains stable or improves during this escrow period. This requires that my income to expense ratios do not substantially change. In this regard, I agree that no large purchases will be made on credit, such as property or cars during this period that would be detrimental to my credit rating or ability to pay my mortgage. If these circumstances change, I agree to inform Homes 4 Families as it may have an impact on my ability to close escrow in a timely manner. If such changes occur, I understand that every attempt possible will be made to place me in a future phase of this project.

THE HOUSING FINANCIAL DISCRIMINATION ACT OF 1977

(Pursuant to Title 21, California Code of Regulations, Section 7114)

FAIR LENDING NOTICE

It is illegal to discriminate in the provision of (or in the availability of financial assistance), because of consideration of the consideration of:

1. Trends, characteristics or conditions in the neighborhood (or geographic area) surrounding a housing accommodation, unless the financial institution can demonstrate, in the particular case, that such consideration is required (to avoid and unsafe and unsound business practice); or
2. Race, color, religion, sex, marital status, national origin, or ancestry.

It is illegal to consider the racial, ethnic, religious or national origin which composes a neighborhood (or geographic area) surrounding a housing accommodation – and whether such composition is (or is not) undergoing change, or is expected to undergo change – in appraising a housing accommodation, or in determining whether or not (or under what terms and conditions) to provide financial assistance.

These provisions govern financial assistance for the purchase, construction, rehabilitation, or refinancing, of a one-unit to four-unit family residence, occupied by the owner (for the purpose of home improvements for any of-unit to four-unit residence).

If you have questions about your rights, or if you wish to file a complaint, contact the management of the financial institution, or the Office of the Secretary, Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, 1120 N. Street, Sacramento, CA 95814

WORD OF CAUTION

The processing of your home loan is a detailed process and required accurate information. Please keep in mind that this process may take longer than expected (and requires a final update prior to the funding of your loan). It is imperative that the information you give us (that is subsequently verified by our office) does not change significantly. Therefore, until the close of escrow, please continue to make your mortgage payments and meet all other financial obligations.

Please notify us before you do any of the following (or please delay doing the following), if at all possible:

1. Change employment (or department)
2. Move any funds from one bank account to another, or close an existing account.
3. Make any large purchases (such as an automobile, furniture, or high cost items).

All of the above situation might be dealt with appropriately, if we know about the changes prior to their occurrence. Failure to notify us about any significant changes to your original loan file, or your financial condition could seriously affect the outcome of this loan transaction.

CalVet Home Loans and the Department of Veterans Affairs of the State of California do not warrant the condition, desirability, suitability, or actual value of the property you are purchasing; such determination being entirely the responsibility of you the "Purchaser". You are encouraged to inspect the property thoroughly, review the Seller's/Agent's disclosure statement, and obtain any inspection report that you deem necessary.

NOTICE OF POTENTIAL FOR PAYMENT OF FEDERAL RECAPTURE TAX
(Qualified Mortgage Bonds)

VETERAN'S NAME:

PROPERTY

ADDRESS:

I understand the following:

All recipients of CalVet loans funded with Qualified Mortgage Bonds may be liable for an additional tax when the home is disposed of (sold), to repay the federal government for some of the benefit of the federally subsidized CalVet home loan. Qualified Mortgage Bonds (QMB) are exempt from federal income tax. This allows CalVet to charge a reduced interest rate on CalVet loans.

This additional tax (the Recapture Tax) is described in Section 143(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

I may have to pay some Recapture Tax if I dispose of my CalVet-financed property during the first full 9 years following the date the loan was originated.

If I dispose of the property after 9 years following the loan closing date, no Recapture Tax will ever be due.

The Recapture Tax is calculated in the year of the disposition. The tax will never exceed 6.25% of the original loan amount. The amount of the Recapture Tax, if any, is the lessor of the recapture amount that will be provided to you at loan closing; or 50% of the gain upon disposition, whether or not recognized. "Whether or not recognized" means that, even though I may not have to pay any capital gains tax, any gain upon the disposition must be used for the purposes of calculating the Recapture Tax.

Understanding the potential for a Recapture Tax, I want to continue with the processing and funding of the CalVet loan.
